JONATHAN TORO CALLED UP TO THE NATIONAL TEAM ONCE AGAIN

3 NOV 2026

Jonathan Toro has been called up to the Honduras national team once more.

Following an excellent start to the season with Petro de Luanda—where he has been one of the team's key players in recent years—Toro has been selected again, having previously been called up for the matches in October.

This time, the Honduras national team will play two friendly matches, against the United Arab Emirates and Kuwait.

So far this season, Toro has made 17 appearances and scored two goals. Four of those matches were played for the national team in the CONCACAF Nations League.
